BADGE IN A HEAD FINISH. TIPS ON TO-MORROW'S RACES.

Despite the Chilly Weather Many Ladies Were in Attendance

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) CLIFTON RACE TRACE, Nov. 26. -The weather was raw and cold at Clifton this afternoon, but notwithstanding this a large crowd came out to enjoy the excellent racing provided by the Association. Quite a number of ladies were enticed to the track and the whole course had quite a holiday appearance.

That racing would be continued on Thanksgiving Day was made known by means of faring posters.

has start in the first was delayed considerably by the action of the jockeys. Hub S., with Taylor up, was considered a cinch by the talent and they played him heavily. The comber of starters kept a fair price sgainst Lin all the thue.

St. John and Kingstock were the most fansed of the others. Hun S., well ridden, collate ! Klugsion in the stretch and beat him out a length. Monroe, at long odds, was third. Pange, of course, was a top-heavy favorite for the recond race, and Lepanto was also fancied and well p'ayed.

liadge allowed Zender to lead to within : lew yards of the wire, when Flynn, drawing tine finish, allowed Badge to win by a hear Zonser beat Contessa ully a length and a balf in the two-year-old race Park Ridge, with

Taylor up, was considered to be the real good taing, and he was installed favorite. Lizzie and St. Patrick were next fancied, but the press of money on the former sent Lambley's mount to the post second choice. Almost any price could have been had against the others. The favorite trailed for most of the distance, but overhanded the leaders on the stretch and won easily by a length. St. Patrick beat Lighte for the place.
